The Artisan Market is back in town

Newbury is at heart a market town, still holding a variety of markets including a twice weekly Charter Market and a Farmer's Market on the first and third Sunday of every month. The town now also boasts an Artisan Market, run in conjunction with Newbury BID. The Artisan Market takes over the streets of Newbury on the last Sunday of every month 10am - 4pm, selling quality produce, original art, designer crafts and sizzling street food all mixed with family activities, music and much more!

The Artisan Market are always looking for new traders, and for more information about this or the Artisan Market in general please visit www.newburyartisanmarket.co.uk. The next dates the market will be in

Newbury are as follows:

- Sunday 31st July
- Sunday 28th August
- Sunday 25th September
- Sunday 30th October
- Sunday 27th November

Office and Events Manager of Newbury BID Suzanne Young said, “The Artisan Market is proving to be a great attraction for Newbury and we’re delighted with its success”.

Newbury BID is a Business Improvement District Company (BID), responsible for managing the Town Centre. The work includes the marketing and promotion of Newbury and the development of links between organisations and the local community. For more information about Newbury and the BID visit
