May Day just got event better in Newbury!

Head down to Newbury Market Place on the 1st of May and you will find a whole host of activities! The Garston Gallopers will be gathering in the Market Place at 2:30pm for some good old fashioned Morris Dancing before taking to the maypole at 3:30pm. You may not be able to resist joining in the fun with this traditional dance, or perhaps, sit back and watch the gallopers in full Morris Dancer swing! The festivities also expand to the fantastic Rock Choir who will be gathering in the Market Place at 12pm to deliver a multi layered singing sensation for all spectators, hurry down you don't want to miss it!

Teamed with the traditional Crafty Craft Race which will be paddling and capsizing its way through Newbury, there will be plenty for family and friends to enjoy this May Day in Newbury from Morris Dancing and Rock Choir to the bouncing fun of trampolines and an inflatable!

Events Manager of Newbury BID Laura Adamson said, "May day is traditionally a great day for Newbury with the arrival of the Crafty Crafty Race, the team at Newbury BID are thrilled to sponsor this event and expand the activities on offer to our historic Market Place ”
